Northgate Shopping Center, a 67,059-square-foot, grocery-anchored retail center, is ideally located in York, Pennsylvania, at one of the major intersections in York County and a gateway to York City. The center is anchored by Grocery Outlet and features a diverse mix of national and regional tenants, including Dollar General, Infinito's Pizza Buffet, ShoeFly, and McDonald's, among others. With its strong lineup of traffic-generating tenants, the center is a key shopping destination in the York market.

Location

Strategically positioned with significant frontage along two of the market's busiest corridors—Route 30 (83,000 VPD) and North George Street (18,000 VPD)—the center is less than half a mile from Interstate 83. It benefits from high-volume traffic flow and its proximity to surrounding residential and office populations. Serving not only the immediate trade area but also drawing from surrounding markets, Northgate Shopping Center remains a prominent retail hub in the region.

Trade Area

Adding to the stability of the project, Northgate Shopping Center shows a 20-minute drive time demographic of over 346,441 people with household incomes of more than $75,269 and daytime employment demographics equally as strong with 164,881. The demographics within a 10-mile radius include 267,300 people in 105,565 homes, a labor force of 139,484 with an average household income of $74,439. The area's growth has increased over 15.6% since 2000 with over 16,554 new homes.
