Property Overview

Phoenixville Shopping Center is a popular Acme-anchored community center located at the signalized corner of Rt. 23 and Starr Street, the eastern gateway to Phoenixville. Phoenixville is experiencing continued explosive residential and commercial growth and is a destination for residents and visitors alike. A newly constructed multi-tenant 8,900 sf retail pad building will welcome tenants in the Second Quarter of 2024. The combined traffic count at the intersection of Rt. 23 and Starr Street exceeds 27,000 vehicles per day.

Location

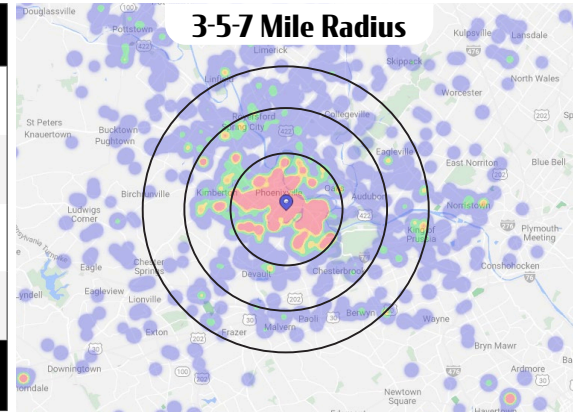

The Phoenixville Shopping Center offers excellent visibility and easy access. The new retail building will be located at the main entrance to the shopping center. Route 23 (Nutt Road) and Starr Street (signalized) along with Route 29, just west of the center, are heavily travelled commuter roads which lead to the nearby suburbs and corporate centers of both Chester and Montgomery Counties. Starr Street is the eastern gateway to the downtown restaurant and entertainment scene.

Trade Area

Phoenixville, a revitalized former steel town in Chester County, is 9 miles west of King of Prussia and 28 miles northwest of Philadelphia. Surrounding suburbs include Malvern, Collegeville, Valley Forge, Devon and Oaks. Phoenixville has continually been named as a best place to live in the Philly suburbs. The thriving downtown is home to the famous Colonial Theater, countless restaurants, breweries and distilleries and new high-end apartments. Phoenixville Hospital is located a few short blocks from the shopping center.
