PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

State-of-the-art retail or office space at 635 N Loyalsock Ave, Montoursville, PA. Bring your business to a new, first-floor, retail space, enjoy the beautiful, 2nd-floor office space, or be creative with the below-grade retail/office space.

The original EuroOptics building is on a prime, hard corner neighboring Weis, Lowes, and Walmart. It is an eye-catching 2-story, Class A building, with many green initiatives taken into consideration when designing this exceptional building. Newly constructed in 2017, the first-floor retail space is a good opportunity to serve as the landmark for your business and give customers a great first impression. There are two retail spaces to choose from, with a common area between. The office space on the second floor is currently a warm, lit shell, but it can be built to suit your needs. The common area on the 2nd floor is shared with LIVIC Civil. There is also a large, open, finished basement with a garage door for access to the outside that would be a great fit for a fitness or warehouse user. Two separate attic spaces can also be utilized for additional storage space or a server room. The building's IT department would help with any infrastructure needs with usage of the existing high-capacity server onsite. There are two backup generators on the roof that ensure that your business always stays running. One luxury that sets this building apart from others is the advantage that the solar energy system brings to tenants by allowing for discounted utility bills. Contact us for a showing of this spectacular building.
