York, PA is a rapidly growing area located in Southcentral PA. It is conveniently located less than 30 minutes from Harrisburg and Lancaster and no more than an hour from downtown Baltimore. There are approximately 435,000 people that live in the market. The east side of York is the original commercial shopping district and has been a stable area of residential and commercial growth for more than 50 years. The area has a good road system with major highways that carry traffic from all directions. This has contributed to the large amount of warehouse, commercial, retail, and residential growth the county has seen over the past 15 years.
