A. Intent, it is the intent of this section to provide an industrial district that is:

(1) Compatible with surrounding and commercial districts and which will contain a consistent degree of aesthetic quality.

(2) Suitable for light manufacturing and assembly, research and development, wholesale, distribution, and service uses

(1) Research and development, engineering or testing laboratory.

(2) Administrative activities and offices related to permitted industrial uses.

(3) Warehouses for wholesale sales, distribution or storage, provided no materials are stored outside.

(4) Any light machining or manufacturing, testing, repair, storage or distribution of materials, goods, foodstuffs or products.

(5) Public utility installations providing no materials are stored outside.

(6) Veterinarian or boarding kennel.

(7) Day care as an accessory use to and within any permitted use above.

(8) Office buildings.

(9) Normal and customary accessory uses.

While Chester County may not attract large, blue-collar distribution centers favored by companies like Amazon, it thrives as a hub for Philadelphia's high-earning innovators in healthcare research and their families. The presence of prestigious institutions like West Chester University and companies such as Siemens Medical, DSM Biomedical, and various pharmaceutical headquarters drives demand for flex, manufacturing, and distribution space supporting research and development activities.
