ZONING: TC, TOWN CENTER DISTRICT

The Town Center District is designed to accommodate uses appropriate to the Central Business District, especially within the Retail Overlay District, and to provide regulations to ensure that the scale and character of the historic and retail commercial environment is maintained. The district is also designed to include regulations to encourage the provision of pedestrian amenities and protect the character of adjoining residential zoning districts. The district is not intended to accommodate commercial uses which are more appropriate for the Commercial Service District and entail high-volume traffic turnover, large parking areas and/or outdoor storage and display areas.

PERMITTED USES:

- Banks
- Community Facilities
- Multi-Family
- Municipal uses
- Offices
- Personal service shops
- Restaurants
- Retail Store
- Single or two-family dwelling (attached, detached, semi-detached)

While West Chester may not attract large, blue-collar distribution centers favored by companies like Amazon, it thrives as a hub for Philadelphia's high-earning innovators in healthcare research and their families. The presence of prestigious institutions like West Chester University and companies such as Siemens Medical, DSM Biomedical, and various pharmaceutical headquarters drives demand for flex, manufacturing, and distribution space supporting research and development activities.
